&A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the acquisiti on of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to , a future where players globall y have more choice to play their favorite games.
In the United States, the FTC had argued , the acquisition deal would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscriptions because Microsoft would have , an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Grou p.

However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has , not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm will pro bably pull Call of Duty from , Sony PlayStation, or that its ownership of Acti vision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library s ubscription and , cloud gaming markets.
To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year , contract with Nintendo, contingent on th e merger closing.
On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
