Worldview Entertainment was an American motion picture finance company focused on theatrical-quality feature films for worldwide distribution. The company produced over 20 films, including Fox Searchlight's critically acclaimed hit Birdman, which was nominated for nine Academy Awards, winning four Oscars, including Best Picture, and grossed more than R$100 million in global box office revenue.

History [edit]

Worldview Entertainment was founded in 2007 by Chairman and CEO, Christopher Woodrow,[1] and Maria Cestone. Molly Connors joined the company in 2009 as COO. Worldview Entertainment signed with Creative Artists Agency (CAA) in 2010 and has since become the agency's top film finance and production client. Sarah E. Johnson, daughter of Franklin Resources Chairman, Charles B. Johnson, became a partner and investor in the company in 2011. Worldview established a four-year R$30 million credit facility with Comerica in 2013 to provide debt financing for the company's films, which coincided with the infusion of R$40 million in new equity from existing investors. The R$70 million doubled the company's capital base.

The company's film slate after the firing of Christopher Woodrow included Alejandro Gonzlez Iñárritu's comedy, Birdman, with Fox Searchlight Pictures and Regency Enterprises; Zach Braff's drama a Wish I Was Here with Focus Features; and Daniel Espinosa's crime thriller Child 44, with Lionsgate releasing through their Summit Entertainment banner.
