& A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed

28180; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to 💴 a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.

& In the United States, the FTC had argued 💴 the acquisition dea

I would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscr ptions because Microsoft would have 💴 an incentive to shut out rivals

like Sony Group.

& However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has &

#128180; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from 💴 Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and 💴 cloud gaming markets.

& To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year 💴 contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing.

& On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
